Unfinished Business

- The chapter discussed participating in community events. RTA will have a table at the upcoming Perris Health Fair on April 27. T-NOW members are welcome to join RTA staff at the booth. RTA will also participate in the July 4 festivities in Moreno Valley with more details to come.

New Business:

- Mr. Lane gave an overview of the recent T-NOW Executive Committee meeting and said he looks forward to seeing the chapter set some achievable goals for the year.
- Mr. Forgiarini gave an overview of RTA's 2019-2020 proposed service changes.
- Mr. Ustation gave a demonstration of RTA's mobile ticketing app and fare validation process.
- Mr. Ustation noted that the RTA Board of Directors approved bringing back the youth summer fare promotion from June 1 – September 2. Chapter members will be provided with marketing materials and asked to help promote the program.

Updates:

- Mr. Lewis noted that the City of Moreno Valley used RTA's First and Last Mile study as a source when applying for a recent grant to expand their trail network.

Ridership Report:

- March ridership for RTA was down 0.9%

Items for Future Agendas

- Mr. Lewis would like the chapter to seek funding opportunities to pay for adding lighting to the existing bus shelters on Sunnymead Boulevard.

Meeting adjourned at 12:30 pm

The next meeting will be held at Perris City Hall on March 21, 2019
